16 M	R EISENSTEIN:
17	Q. Mr. Sweeney, good morning. My name
18	is Jethro Eisenstein and I represent Jas
19	Prince and Young Empire, the plaintiffs in
20	the case against Aspire, yourself, and
21	Cortez Bryant.
22	We are continuing a deposition that
23	we started in August of 2013. Do you
24	remember being here in August of 2013?
25	A. Yes, sir.

	Q. So I am going ask you some questions
$\sim$	to catch up on where we are. Is Cash Money
4	current in accounting to Aspire for Drake?
5	A, No.
6	Q. s Cash Money current in paying
7	Aspire for Diake?
8	A. No.
9	Q. In August of '13, you said you
10	engaged Gary Cohen to conduct an audit of
11	Cash Money on behalf of Aspire; is that
12	correct?
13	A. That's correct.
14	Q. Has that audit been completed?
15	A. No.
16	MR. HOFFMAN: Object to the
17	form. It assumes that it started.
18	A. Nor did it start.
19	Q. That was my next question, perhaps I
20	did it in the wrong order. Has it even
21	started?
22	A. No.
23	Q. Has anything been done on that
24	audit?
25	A. No.

4	A. Ten is in front of you.
5	Q. Is there any provision giving Young
6	Money the right to participate in the money
7	from Canada?
8	A. In this agreement we put Canada back
9	into the deal.
10	Q. I don't understand what that means.
11	What do you mean by we put Canada back into
12	the deal?
13	A. As part of the renegotiation and
14	given all the craziness that took part with
15	what we are dealing with right now in
16	Canada, we rolled Canada, the territory
17	Canada, and made it a total worldwide deal.
18	Q. Mr. Sweeney, when did that occur?
19	A. That's what that agreement says.
20	Q. I apologize for the confusion
21	because what I put in front of you was the
22	2013 agreement?
23	A. Yes.
24	Q. I didn't mean to ask you about 2013.

3	I am now putting that in front of you and
4	asking whether in that agreement there is
5	any provision that gives Young Money a right
6	to participate in profits from Canada?
7	MR. HOFFMAN: I am just going to
8	object to the form. It has been
9	asked and answered, that's when we
10	started this whole process. You can
11	ask him again. You can answer.
12	A. I refer you to paragraph 83 of the
13	agreement. The agreement says, a company
14	will be responsible for paying all
15	third-parties. Young Money is a
16	third-party.
17	Q. Young Money is a third-party, it is
18	not a participant in the deal?
19	A. This deal was struck by me, as you
20	know, I represent both Aspire and Young
21	Money. A decision was made who is going to
22	make the payments. The decision was Aspire
23	would make the payments. Aspire made the

3	A. Yes. Let me rephrase that. At a
4	point in time I was holding onto some checks
5	in anticipation as I was trying to get this
6	resolved. I subsequently sent all of those
7	checks to Aspire's accounting office. After
8	that some of the checks that I had been

16	over to the accounting office.	$\overline{\mathcal{O}}$
17	At a certain point my client said,	*
18	wait, hold up. So I ended up telling Canada
19	to wait, hold up. Now Canada who
20	subsequently decided to go ahead and get the
21	checks and put them into the account. So
22	those checks were on the way, in which I
23	would do like I normally do, which is to
24	take the check and send it over to Aspire's

10	MR. HOFFMAN: Twenty-three.
	Q. Twenty-three was a contract for a
	$100,000 advance?
13	A. All right, let's go to Exhibit 30.
	Essentially I am in the middle of this in a
15	Sense. This was turned over like normal
16	procedure to DMG, DMG negotiated the license
17	and Cash Money was supposed to make a
18	payment of $100,000. What Cash Money did
19	pursuant to this E-mail on Exhibit 30, they
20	sent $10,000 instead of $100,000.
21	When you look at my E-mail on
22	March 5, 2010, like this is foul, call me
23	about this. I am calling, they need to send
24	the money over to Playboy. The license was

6	A. No.
7	Q. When, in fact, this case got settled

9	A. I believe so. I don't remember the

11	Q. Take look at Exhibit 36.
12	MR. HOFFMAN: That's a draft.
13	Q. Have you seen Exhibit 36 before?
14	A. I kind of want to say this is what
15	started the conversation about who is going
16	to pay for this. But I don't believe there
17	is a document that exists, unless you can
18	show it to me, that shows that Aspire signed

		10
		10	the beauty of the deal was, everybody's

23 BY	MR. EISENSTEIN:
24	Q. Let me ask the question this way,
25	Mr. Sweeney. What does Universal do for its

	[Page 251]	$\langle \gamma \rangle_{\lambda}$

2	and Aspire being paid, are subject to the
3	same the actual distribution fees that	$\sim$
4	they are being charged.	4
5	Q. Have you ever seen the agreements	5
6	between Cash Money and Universal?	6
7	A. No.	7
8	Q. Have you ever asked for them?	8
9	A. Yes.	9
10	Q. But you haven't gotten them?	10
11	A. Of course not.	11
12	MR. EISENSTEIN: I am not	12
13	closing the record because I think	13
14	that you are that you have the	14
15 S	right to pick and chose based on the	15
16	testimony of Mr. Sweeney about the	16
17	waiver of the privilege. I think	17
18	the questions about what was said	18
19	with Derrick Lawrence are still	19
20	properly asked, given what	20
21	Mr. Sweeney originally said, they	21
22	told me something had happened.	22
23	MR. HOFFMAN Before you take	23
24	that position, do you want to check	24
25	with your client first to see if he	25

because there have been text messages during this deposition to our client from your client about this very subject.

R. SWEENEY wants what was said on the record

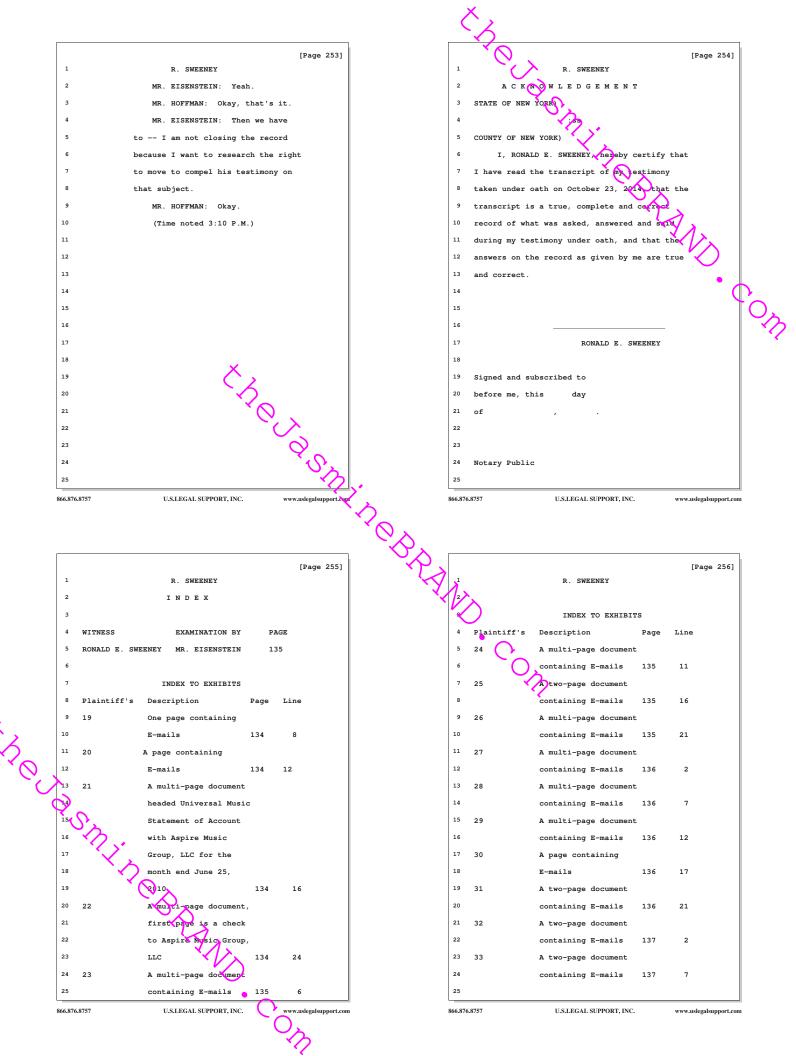

TR. EISENSTEIN: I am aware of that.

MR. HOFFMAN: I think it is necessarily proper when the lawyer is sitting here in a deposition and then the other person in the room is sending texts to them, which could be implied as threatening. But --

MR. EISENSTEIN: The parties are entitled to communicate with each other directly at any time. I am perfectly comfortable with the record having exactly what was said in response to questions by the people who to whom these statements are attributed. So come on with it, I don't have any problem with that. MR. HOFFMAN: Do you still want to adhere to the privilege?
